Welcome to Gustavia!

A digital and modern shortcut to the Swedish heritage on St Barth

The ancient way VS. the modern

Let's take a digital walk and discover the Swedish heritage in Gustavia

This app is based on a idea from the Sweden – St Barthelemy Foundation and was built by students from the south of Sweden. All for everyone to be reminded that Gustavias and St Barths history also is a part of Swedens. Equally important for the both of us.

Enjoy your walk! We provide the highlights FOR FREE. You, your effort!

It's a free app...

The ST BARTH OF SWEDEN app can be dowloaded to both IoS and Android smartphones. Beeing on St Barth all you have to do is to activate BlueTooth and off you go. Your mobile will give you a guided tour through the Swedish history and heritage of Gustavia. Best of all, you can do it back home as well by clicking on the pins.

Thanks to BlueTooth technology (another Swedish invention) and the Beacons you will be reminded when your'e getting close to an interesting Swedish site.

... and guides you!

But first of all you should choose your language. The app comes in French, English and of course Swedish.

Choose language

It's very simple to get started...

A virtuell walk...

The blue dot marks where you are in Gustavia or on St Barth. All the red pins are Swedish monuments worth a visit.

...that reminds...

You don't have to look at your mobile all the time. When the Beacon identify that a smartphone with our app gets within range (approx 30 meters) it sends a push-notice to your mobile and alerts you. Open the app and you'll see a small icon that tells you what you shouldn't miss.

...and quriosity keeps you going.

A reminder invites you to read more.

...to expierience...

And when you click the reminder the full text and photo appears.

...and says good-bye.

The app even sends a push notice in case you missed the building or site.

Different interests needs different information

Different categories

But there's so much more to see on St Barth. That's why we included other places worth visiting and see. Such as museums, attraction as Le Select and, naturally, all the beautiful beaches on the island.

Deeper information

Each beach has its own charm and are worth a visit, a swim and plenty of time to relax. Our app guides you!

Always near you

Even though Gustavia and St Barth isn't that big it's nice to know where you are. And where the interesting places are. You are the blue dot!

Inspiration & information always at hand

Just in case...

The app also comes handy when you quickly need to find the right phonenumber to call. You don't even have to dial, help is just a klick away.

Background stories

The long history of St Barth is also presented in short and the app even includes a video as a introduction to the island.

Scenic photos

If you want to have a closer look of what it looks like around the island there is at photo gallery that gives you an idea. There's even a video to introduce you to what to expect.
